

HIGH GRADE ORE ENCOUNTERED IN COOPER LEASE

PARTY OF TONOPAH MEN SPEND
DAY VISITING ELLEN-DALE DISTRICT

Tom W. Kendall, Billy Douglass and Ross Congdon went out to Ellendale yesterday morning and after spending the day in the camp, returned last evening. All three gentlemen were greatly enthused over the appearance of the district and were firm in their belief that the camp will be one of the greatest shippers in the outlying sections.

"Not only is the main strike improving, but several of the other leases are rapidly coming into the money," said Mr. Kendall after his return.

"The Nagle-Cooper lease is the one which the people of the camp are watching with particular interest. The operators recently encountered a pay streak, and the development, as exposed yesterday, showed fully 16 inches of high grade ore. The find was made in a 10-foot winze that was sunk on the crosscut sent out from the 65-foot shaft. This ledge pans freely and as a conservative estimate, I would judge that the rock will go between $250 and $500 to the ton. The vein appears to run toward the main strike, and it is my belief that future work will prove it to be an extension of the big ledge that has already produced a fortune.

"The Cooper-Nagle lease is regarded as the best in the camp, outside of the Clifford and Noy served section. After the shaft was sunk to the 45-foot point, a little prospecting was indulged in and then the operations were concentrated in the running of a tunnel to tap the mountain side in order that an exit could be effected, as this would greatly lessen the work of handling the dirt. In running this tunnel, a ledge was cut that shows a width of about 30 feet. This will assay anywhere from $15 to $30 to the ton. No work is being done on this as present as the sinking of the winze will be continued in order to more fully open up the high grade ledge.

"Several parties are trying to secure the Bowler lease, as prospecting has resulted in a number of fine showings being exposed."

COURT GRANTS PERMISSION TO ADOPT CHILD

JOHN A. AND ALTHA KENNEDY
ASK GUARDIANSHIP OF INFANT GIRL

An eight months' old girl was the subject of an interesting but brief case in the district court yesterday. The child, Altha Kennedy, was the daughter of Frank A. and Catherine G. Kennedy, and a petition had been filed by John and Altha Kennedy, asking the court's permission to adopt the infant.

Frank Kennedy, the father and husband, deserted his family over a year ago and since that date has not contributed in any way to their support. The mother was willing that her child should be taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy.

Judge Averill, after hearing the petition read, legalized the adoption, by giving the consent of the court. The petitioners were represented by Judge J. A. Saunders.

ANOTHER MEMBER ADDED TO FIRE DEPARTMENT

Commissioners Grant Request of Chief Sinclair

In response to the petition of Chief W. J. Sinclair of the fire department, the board of county commissioners yesterday granted permission for the employing of an additional fireman. In the letter to the chief, the board said that after the third fireman was placed on the payroll they would not allow any claims for extra help contracted by the fire department, such as cleaning hose, watchmen, etc.

On receipt of the order the chief placed Robert Davidson, who has been working as a relief member, in the vacant situation.

The commissioners during the morning session, declared the offices of justice of the peace and constable at Ellendale, vacant.

The board finished up all business by noon, when an adjournment was taken until the first Monday of next month.

NAMESAKE OF BATTILING NELSON IS IN TROUBLE

SWATS UNSUSPECTING CHINK
OVER BROW WITH OIL CAN

Walter Nelson, who disclaims relationship to the Battling, spent an interesting half hour in Judge Atkinson's court yesterday morning. The namesake of the illustrious pugilist had engaged in a controversy with a Chink Thursday night, and in the argument that followed had smitten the son of the Flowery Kingdom over the south side of the dome with an oil can.

Sam Lee appeared as the complaining witness in the case, but owing to the absence of an interpreter several mouthfuls of his evidence did not go down on the records. He made it plain, however, that Nelson had attacked him, and exhibited a badly bruised eye as evidence of the assault. The only reason he could give for the attack was that of robbery.

The court at the conclusion of the case found Nelson guilty and sentenced him to pay a fine of $75 and costs. In default of payment the prisoner was given a 50-day membership in the order of the Great and Only Chain Gang. He will be real useful in repairing the streets.

Nelson is the person who found a gold watch fob lost by George Foley of Round Mountain. When Ed Malley went to redeem the property he was told by Nelson that a party had claimed it several hours previous. It is thought that he sold the fob, and if anybody has it, they will be paid a reward of $5 by returning the gold piece to Chief Malley's office.

TONOPAH WATER SITUATION REVIEWED AT THE BUTLER

Clemens Scores a Hit in Song Last Evening

Earle R. Clemens made a big hit at the Butler theatre with a comical take-off on Nevada, Tonopah and Reno. The people went wild over this song, although they fully appreciated Mr. Clemens' rendition of "Past and Future" and "Celeste." The Nevada song will be rendered again tonight.

Prof. Voss, the violinist, will be on hand tonight with a solo, during the first performance, and will accompany Mr. Clemens during the three shows.

There will be matinees both today and Sunday, at which Mr. Clemens will sing. The pictures are very fine, and everyone in Tonopah should see them.

Miss Longland's song, "Dixie Lee," is splendid. Mr. Clemens will close his engagement Sunday night.

Don't forget the Fraternal Brotherhood's card party at Elks hall, Monday evening, Nov. 8.

MANIA FOR WALKING RESULTS IN ARREST

Mrs. Jessie Fenton who, several weeks ago, was arrested at Manhattan and was brought here and examined as to her sanity, has again fallen into the hands of the police. Several days ago she was picked up about eight miles from Reno when she was walking to a distant town. Sheriff Ferrell brought her back to the Reno jail, and since then she has refused to eat. Yesterday she was examined by a sanity board, but was not adjudged insane. Her actions will be watched for several days, when the board will hold a second examination.

While Mrs. Fenton was confined in the county jail here awaiting the examination of the insanity experts, she refused to eat and fasted for several days. She seems to have a mania for wandering, and when taken in custody at Manhattan, she had just completed a walk from Round Mountain. Her appearance is contrary to that of an insane person and the woman answers questions propounded by the insanity commission in an intelligent manner. When released she was furnished a ticket to Reno, as she was without funds and evinced a desire to return to that town, which she claimed as her home.
